

York 50mm SURFACE PREPARATION DISCS MEDIUM

Designed for cleaning and finishing on all metals. Leaves a burr-free surface ready for painting or coating. Can also be used for the removal of light rust, oxides and coatings.

| Specifications | Details                                                                                        |
|----------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Product Type   | Disc                                                                                           |
| Weight         | 1                                                                                              |
| For Use On     |  All Metals |
| SKU            | YRK2056220GTSK                                                                                 |
| Disc Diameter  | 50 mm                                                                                          |
| Maximum RPM    | 23000 rpm                                                                                      |
| Grade          | Medium                                                                                         |
| Brand          | York                                                                                           |